

Hey... CH. 1 of 5

Hey, this is Misha, and I want to "officially" welcome you to my world.

About two years ago, when I was 22, had absolutely NO CLUE what I wanted to do with my life, and was in one the most brutal health crisis's anyone could ever go through (more on that later), I happen to stumble into the world of Online Marketing.

At first, it was just a hobby... something to fill my spare time with... and something that I didn't really have much confidence in... But the more I dug, and the more of an understanding I began to have of it, the more addicting it became.

I soon found myself completely obsessed, and spending near every hour of the waking day in front of my computer.

I tried EVERYTHING... and failed A TON (actually I wasted near $9,755 in trial and error testing, and to this day, I still fail way more often than I succeed), but kept moving forward... stayed persistent... and finally broke through.

It took me about a year of constant effort and constant failure to finally figure out what was holding me back... and then about 3 months of consistent effort to break through those barriers. The rest, as they say, is history.

Since then I've been selling all sorts of things Online, and I've become a devout student of Direct Response Marketing.

My goal is to ALWAYS give away better stuff for FREEE than what other people online charge for. In fact, tomorrow, I'm going to do just that. I'm going to let you in on my SINGLE highest converting offer, for damn near free - and then you only pay me if you think it's worth it... BUT only if you open the e-mail when it comes in tomorrow.

And yes, you heard me correctly, I want our relationship to start out great...

So I'm going to take it upon myself to WOW you with so much value up front, that you'll feel obligated to buy more of my stuff later. haha :)

Sound good?

Cool, then look out for that e-mail tomorrow.

Thanks,

Misha

P.S. The subject of that e-mail tomorrow will be, "Ch. 2 of 5 - As I stared at the blank beige wall, I wondered..." -so look out for it.

Ch. 2 of 5 - As I stared at the blank beige wall, I wondered...

How did I get here?, I wondered...

As I sat on the living room couch staring aimlessly and hopelessly the pale beige wall ahead of me, I wondered... "How did I get here?" It was 100+ degrees outside, and I couldn't even afford my measly AC bill... but worse than that, I had just gotten SERIOUSLY bad news...

I had just gotten back from the local bank, where I had realized a harsh reality... a reality that had been hitting me all too often of late.

I didn't have the measly $350 for rent that I owed my roommate, and best friend at the time.

Rewind a year, and you would have seen a different person. A young 22 year old full of confidence and enthusiasm excited about what his future held for him.

I was living on Maui, HI, and was completely in love with life.

I had just found the Internet, and had decided that it was my path to wealth...

The idea of being able to sell to anyone, anywhere, anytime THRILLED ME
... and all the success stories I saw meant that I COULD DO IT

I purchased into a home business opportunity for $2,000, and was SURE that it was going to get me filthy RICH.

But then... reality struck...

I didn't have a list, didn't have much capital, and didn't know where to start.

The search became an endless tailspin, and I soon found myself overwhelmed, confused, and buried in debt.

I had quit my day job to pursue my new business, had burned through all of my savings, and now, couldn't even afford rent on Maui.

Backed into a corner, I jumped on a plane and moved to New Mexico where I could afford to live (or so I thought) with a buddy who was going to college.

It was a funky little apartment in the middle of the desert, but it was better than nothing.

Once again I was excited about the future, as the change in scenery helped to temporarily ease some of my pain and self doubt.

3 months passed though, and it was back... but this time I had hit ROCK BOTTOM.

I remember it like yesterday... knocking on Ryan's (my roommates) door and waiting... then muttering a few words of embarrassment under my breath, "do you think you could front me some money for rent"?
He wasn't amused... and wasn't happy... but he didn't really have a choice. He was living their too after-all, and the rent needed to be paid by someone.

He agreed unhappily, and slammed the door in my face.

My shoulders slumped forward, and head went down... I walked out to the living room in shame and disgust.

I sat down on the couch and stared aimlessly at the wall. Would things EVER get better I wondered?

Would I ever break through in my Online Business?

How many friendships was this pursuit going to cost me?

Little did I know... I was on the verge of my big breakthrough... A breakthrough that anyone who's been struggling Online can easily create for themselves in a few simple steps...

A breakthrough that I'll share with you in tomorrows e-mail...

Keep your eyes peeled.

To The Top,

Misha Wilson

P.S. I almost forget, yesterday I told you I was going to give you access to my FAVORITE offer... an offer that has helped more people find success Online than anything else I'm aware of...

Usually I sell this system for $49 a month, or $300 a year, at the VERY MINIMUM...

But today, you can try it for just $1.

Get signed up, go through it's training, connect with your personal coach... and then you be the judge.

Ch. 3 of 5 The perfect model...

I remember it like yesterday...

I was sitting in my bedroom (which doubled as my office), on another excruciatingly hot New Mexico afternoon.

I was taking MASSIVE ACTION

... as that's what everybody had told me to do. I was creating capture pages, writings sales videos, writing e-mails, hosting webinars and creating offers...

I was working myself to bone... doing everything in my power to move forward... taking every action step I felt necessary to take in order to break through... yet it simply wasn't happening.

My breakthrough wasn't coming. I'd work harder and harder day in and day out, with blind faith that somehow it would pay off. 3 months passed, and nothing happened. I was stuck, struggling, and completely spinning my wheels. I was overwhelmed, and frankly a little depressed. I was the closest I had EVER come to quitting.

BUT... it was right then when I caught my first break... it was right then when I stumbled upon my first bit of good fortune. I got my first real piece of actionable advice that helped me move forward.

I reached out to Daegan Smith, someone I looked up to immensely, and whole heartedly asked for some advice. He agreed to hop on a call and help me... and in return I'd interview him for his people. (You can checkout that Interview HERE. It's gold in of itself)

It was a way for him to bring value to his audience, and a way for me to get a little bit of exposure... and in return, he'd give me a few minutes of attention

So, we did it... First the interview, then the consult (which lasted about 25 minutes)

I remember showing him all of my stuff, all of my capture pages, my offers, my sales videos... everything I had worked so hard at...

But before I could finish, he stopped me...

He said, "Do you know why McDonalds is SO successful? Do you know my Starbucks is SO successful? Do you know why Subway is SO successful?"

One word...

SYSTEMS.

"Franchises have SYSTEMS in place that allow 90% of all users to be successful, while 90% of all startups fail."

Daegan explained to me that the most surefire way for me to break through, was to tap into a a franchise model system... where 90% of everything was done for me, and tested and proven to convert.

A system where all the capture pages, offers, sales videos, e-mail follow-up and general marketing pieces would be created by experts, and readily available for me to use. From there, after I found some level of success with a franchise model system, he said I could branch off and start creating my own offers, my own marketing, my own systems.

He explained that everyone who was ultra successful started with franchise model systems.

Everyone who has their own offers and systems used franchise model systems as their stepping stones.

He told me that it was the most resistance free route... and that removing resistance is ALWAYS key (that's a lesson in of itself).

So... that's exactly what I did. I tapped into THIS FRANCHISE MODEL system... and focused all of my efforts on traffic generation... Solo Ads to be specific...

And within one year I had hit six figures.
How?

Because I was able to focus ALL of my energy on traffic generation (getting eyeballs in-front of my pre-made funnels)... AND I even had personal, one on one coaching to help me with that.

From there, everything was taken care of. My traffic was converted into leads, my leads into saales, my saales into repeat sales... all by a team of professional 6,7 and 8 figure earners...

It was literally the perfect model... the perfect "stepping stone" if you will.

And that's what you'll get when you join RIGHT HERE.

Done for you capture pages, sales videos, offers, webinars, and e-mail marketing... AND personal one on one coaching to help you get results.

Check it out here, and let me know what you think.

Thanks,

Misha Wilson

P.S. Tomorrow I'm going to be sharing with you some hidden benefits that franchise model systems offer that you're probably not even taking into account. Hidden benefits actually offer the end user much more than what owning your own business could ever offer. Look out for that e-mail tomorrow... The subject line will be "Ch. 4 of 5 "Hidden Benefits"

Ch. 4 of 5 "Hidden Benefits"

When I first tapped into a "franchise model system", I was concerned because I didn't have full control.

I didn't control what people got in each product, and didn't control what made up each offer.

I knew that it was a substantial shortcut... and knew that I didn't really have an option... what I was currently doing, wasn't working.

So, I put my worries aside, and ran with it... And to my pleasant surprise... Everything worked out... Actually, everything worked out even better than what I expected.

Not only did people LOVE the offers, content, and quality of customer support that they got when they bought, but it also opened up amazing levels of freedom in my own life.

With 95% of everything DONE FOR ME, I had SO many more options...

Sure, I was making money... but what I didn't account for was just how much my lifestyle would change.

Sure, I didn't have to go to work anymore, but I also had SO much more time to travel... and because of my new business, could work from anywhere, anytime.

I had a business that was THRIVING, yet all of the selling, customer support, and general business infrastructure was DONE FOR ME.

I had more FREEDOM than ever before...

And because of the high quality of the products I was selling, testimonials rushed in one after another, without me ever really even lifting a finger.

The REAL hidden benefit was the freedom that my new franchise model business afforded me, and that fulfillment that came from sharing that freedom with other, aspiring Entrepreneurs.

I'm guessing if you're here, you're probably after something similar. Time freedom, location freedom, and a business that ACTUALLY serves people.

If so... you NEED to signup for Elite Marketing Pro RIGHT HERE.

You can "try it before you buy it" today for only $1.

Not only is it the shortcut to success with your Online Business, but I think you'll be pleasantly surprised at the hidden benefits that come along with it.

My personal favorite, is the time freedom... but you may be different.

The only way to find out, is to signup right here.
